DICE announces date, venues and theme for this year's Conference + Festival featuring women, trans and nonbinary artists and speakers, set to take place from 31.10 – 02.11.2019 in Berlin-Kreuzberg.

Berlin, 7 July 2019 – We are happy to announce the second edition of DICE Conference + Festival, set to take place between October 31st and November 2nd, 2019 at Taborkirche, Bi NuU and other locations in Berlin-Kreuzberg. The title of this year's edition is "Overtime".

Our 2019 programme addresses the valuation of time and work in relation to music, art and society, and examines the manifold meanings of "Overtime" in an ever-changing global context. What is "Overtime"? What role does it play in our lives? Who benefits? The interdisciplinary festival programme features genre-defying international artists selected for their bold and innovative performance strategies and formats. Our conference addresses methods for artistic and personal self-preservation and advancement, community-building, institutional hacking, and grassroots organising, with music as a driving force for social justice and artistic innovation.
